1. General

- 1.1. MaltaCode will carry out work only where an agreement is provided either by email, telephone, mail or fax. MaltaCode will carry out work only for clients who are 18 years of age or above. An 'order' is deemed to be a written or verbal contract between MaltaCode and the client, this includes telephone and email agreements.
- 1.2. Our software and web sites are built to help organise and augment your organisation's activities. You may use MaltaCode owned material DQG software for commercial use provided you abide by the following:
  - 1.2.1. act within the copyright laws of the Republic of Malta as well as any legislation of the European Community, or of the territory in which MaltaCode originally published the material;
  - 1.2.2. use the software without any adjustment which would alter its meaning or bring MaltaCode, its representatives, agents, clients, contributors or the subject of the material or any other person or entity into disrepute;
- 1.3. MaltaCode incorporates electronic "watermarking" into published material. MaltaCode reserves the right to pursue any infringement in the Courts of the Republic of Malta or of the country where MaltaCode suffers damage or you are likely to derive benefit, at the discretion of MaltaCode.

2. Trademarks and Trade names

- 2.1. All goodwill associated with the use of the software or names, including code, logos, style, format and graphical images, shall be solely to the benefit of MaltaCode and you shall not assert any claim or ownership to any trade names or marks or to the goodwill or reputation thereof. All other trademarks, brand names, products and company names all over which are cited on this software are the trademarks and/or property of their respective owners.
- 2.2. If you are unsure of the legality of your re-use of software and/or web sites owned or managed by MaltaCode you should contact MaltaCode on info@maltacode.com.

3. Software Development & Website Design

- 3.1. Whilst with every endeavor we strive to ensure that the website and any scripts or programs are free of errors, MaltaCode cannot accept responsibility for any losses incurred due to malfunction, contents or the website being compromised.

- 3.2. The website, graphics and any programming code remain the property of MaltaCode until all outstanding accounts are paid in full.
- 3.3. Any programming code remain the property of MaltaCode unless another copyright holder is credited for the relevant locations.
- 3.4. Any scripts, cgi applications, php scripts, filemaker application or software (unless specifically agreed) written by MaltaCode remain the copyright of MaltaCode and may only be commercially reproduced or resold with the permission of MaltaCode.
- 3.5. MaltaCode cannot be held responsible for any copyright infringements caused by materials submitted by the client. We reserve the right to refuse any plagiarised material unless adequate proof is given of permission to use such material
- 3.6. Any additions to the brief will be carried out at the discretion of MaltaCode and where no charge is made by MaltaCode for such additions, MaltaCode accepts no responsibility to ensure such additions are error free and reserves the right to charge a fee as suitable for any correction to these or further additions.
- 3.7. The client agrees to make available as soon as is reasonably possible to MaltaCode all materials required to complete the site or custom software to the agreed standard and within the set deadline.
- 3.8. MaltaCode will not be liable for costs incurred, compensation or loss of earnings and/or data due to the failure to meet agreed deadlines.
- 3.9. MaltaCode will not be liable or become involved in any disputes between the site and/or 3rd party software owners and their clients and cannot be held responsible for any wrongdoing on the part of the site and/or 3rd party software owner.
- 3.10. MaltaCode will not be liable for any costs incurred, compensation or loss of earnings and/or data due to the work carried out on behalf of the client or any of the clients appointed agents.
- 3.11. MaltaCode will not be liable for any costs incurred, compensation or loss of earnings and/or data due to the unavailability of a site, its servers, software or any material provided by its agents.
- 3.12. A deposit of 50% is required for any project before any development and/or design work will be carried out.
- 3.13. Once a website and/or software has been designed and completed the final balance of payment is then due in accordance with our payment terms. There are no exceptions to this, i.e If the client decides they no longer want the site or the software, as they have commissioned the work and paid a deposit they are still obliged to pay for the work that has been done. Non payment will result in legal action being taken if necessary.

4. Database, Application and E-Commerce Development

- 4.1. MaltaCode cannot take responsibility for any losses incurred by the use of any software created for the client. Whilst utmost care has been taken to ensure products are problem free and accurate, the ultimate responsibility lies with the client in ensuring that all software is functioning correctly before use.

- 4.2. Any scripts, cgi applications or software (unless specifically agreed) written by MaltaCode remain the copyright of MaltaCode and may only be commercially reproduced or resold with the permission of MaltaCode.
- 4.3. Where applications or sites are developed on servers not recommended by MaltaCode, the client is expected to provide or seek any information, additional software, support or co-operation pertaining to the server required in order for the application to be correctly developed. Where large applications are to be developed, it is the client's responsibility to provide a suitable testing environment which is identical to the final production environment.
- 4.4. The client is expected to fully test any application or programming relating to a site or application developed by MaltaCode before being made generally available for use. Where "bugs", errors or other issues are found after the site is live, MaltaCode will endeavor (but is not obliged to) to correct these issues to meet the standards of function outlined in the brief.

5. Website Hosting

- 5.1. We offer hosting services by buying a managed dedicated server from FlexWebHosting. They have great customer and technical support and service guarantee for an annual average of 99% network availability for their infrastructure. MaltaCode gives support for your websites hosted on our hosting servers with the backup of FlexWebHosting.
- 5.2. MaltaCode recommends companies to provide internet, hosting services, vpn connections and/or software, no guarantees can be made as to the availability or interruption of this service by MaltaCode. Furthermore, MaltaCode cannot accept liability for losses caused by the unavailability, malfunction interruption of this service, or for loss of turnover, sales, revenue, profits of indirect, consequential or special loss.

6. Hosting Payment Policy & Billing Procedures

- 6.1. All accounts are set up on a prepaid basis. We accept payments via Cash, Check, PayPal, and Bank Transfers. Setup fees are charged for all new accounts that are paid on a yearly basis and major account changes and are non-refundable. All pricing is guaranteed for the term of pre-payment. MaltaCode reserves the right to change prices at any time. Payment is due each year or period following the date the account was established. If 14 days have passed and payment has not been posted, the account will be suspended until further notice. The customer is responsible for all money owed on the account from the time it was established to the time that the customer notifies MaltaCode to request termination of services.

7. Payment of Accounts

- 7.1. A deposit is required from any new client before any work is initiated. It is MaltaCode's policy that any outstanding accounts for work carried out by MaltaCode or its affiliates are required to be paid in full, no later than 14 days from the date of the invoice unless a prior arrangement is made with MaltaCode.

- 7.2. Once a deposit is paid and work is completed you are obliged to pay the balance of payment in full. We will contact clients via email and telephone to remind them of such payments if they are not received when due.
- 7.3. If accounts are not settled or MaltaCode have not been contacted regarding the delay, access to the related website and/or software may be denied and web pages removed, we will then pass such cases to the courts of the Republic of Malta to pursue payment, non payment can result in court judgements being affecting the client's credit rating.
- 7.4. Following consistent non payment of an invoice our debt collection agency will contact the client in question, with the purpose of taking the matter further and if need be to seek payment through legal means, and if necessary court summons.

8. Passing of Rights

- 8.1. Once all amounts due to us from you are paid and cleared you are assigned the rights to use, as applicable, the products and services, including, the web site and/or software which includes the text, scripts, layouts, graphics, animation, audio components and digital components contained within the finished web site and/or software, in accordance with these terms and conditions, the Project Agreement and any applicable agreement, terms or licence but no rights of ownership are conveyed unless specifically stated in the Project Contract.
- 8.2. No such rights as described in above will pass until all amounts due to us from you are paid. This means that we will have a lien over any service, products, data or information. If you have not paid the invoice in full within 14 days from the date of the invoice you agree that you will forfeit your rights.
- 8.3. The rights to photographs, graphics and any third party items such as source code, always remain the property of their respective owners.
